

Dave McLeish Academic Award Application Form

Introduction

The ETU is proud to offer members and the children of members the opportunity to apply for the Dave McLeish Academic Award.

The Dave McLeish Academic Award is available to all financial ETU members and their children undertaking academic studies in a labour-related discipline (for example Industrial Relations, Labour Law, Politics, Economics, Government Relations etc) at an Australian University.

One award will be given biennially to the value of $2,500 for each year of fulltime degree level studies for the approved course.

Successful applicants will be required to undertake a paid internship with the ETU during each year of study for a period of four weeks. Successful applicants must also be willing to accept employment with the ETU or an ETU recommended labour organisation at the completion of their studies however there is no guarantee of employment on completion.

Applicants will be considered on a number of criteria including but not limited to:

- 1) The likelihood of the applicant completing the course
- 2) The financial situation of the applicant
- 3) The benefits derived by ETU members and their communities, and
- 4) The academic record of the applicant.

Applicant's should complete the attached application form and return it completed to:

The Secretary
ETU NSW Branch
Level 5
370 Pitt Street
SYDNEY NSW 2000

If you have any questions or should you require assistance completing your application form please call the ETU office and talk to Paul Lister - (02) 9267 4844.
